

NOTICE OF CONVERSION PRIVILEGE
Information for Policyholder or Administrator

Many states have laws requiring the group policyholder to notify covered individuals of any conversion rights when coverage is terminating. Failure to do so could impact the individual's right to conversion and expose you to legal action. Most group plans allow conversion of life insurance when eligibility under the group is lost. The converted benefits are NOT the same as those under the group.

Employee/members and/or dependents lose eligibility under most group plans upon:

1. Termination of employment or membership.
2. Death of employee/member, which may cause the surviving spouse or dependent children to lose eligibility.
3. Divorce of a covered spouse from the employee/member.
4. A covered person reaching a limiting age.
5. Termination of the Plan. In this event, there may be no conversion rights.

If you are required to offer continuation, it may be necessary to give the terminating individual Notice of Conversion on two separate occasions.

1. Upon initial loss of eligibility. Any life insurance could be converted at this time.
2. Upon expiration of the continuation period.

TO GIVE PROPER NOTICE OF CONVERSION RIGHTS

1. Complete Part A, answering all questions; making certain to include date and signature. Do this no later than 10 days from the termination of coverage.
2. Give to the terminating individual, or mail to his/her last known address.
3. If you have any questions on how to complete this form, you may call the Conversion Unit at 1-877-320-0484.

NOTICE OF CONVERSION PRIVILEGE

Insurance coverage for you or a dependent is being terminated as of the DATE OF GROUP COVERAGE TERMINATION shown on the following page. You may have the right to CONVERT your Group Life coverage without having to submit evidence of good health. Your group insurance certificate or booklet contains the specific conversion privilege.

GROUP LIFE INSURANCE may be converted to a plan of individual permanent life insurance. Conversion to term insurance is not available in all states. You may convert any amount up to the benefit level you had under the group plan. Special restrictions and limits apply when coverage on an entire class of employees or members terminates.

To receive a cost and benefit quotation for CONVERTED coverage:

1. Complete all information requested in Part B of this form. Part A should have been completed by the employer or administrator. Both Part A and B must be completed and signed before a quote may be given. Make a copy for your records.
2. Mail directly to:
Hartford Life
Attn: Group Conversion Unit
P.O. Box 248108
Cleveland, OH 44124-8108

To be considered eligible for Life conversion coverage, you must request a quotation for coverage within:

- a. 31 days from the Date of Group Coverage Termination, or
- b. 15 days from the date the Notice of Conversion Privilege was signed by the policyholder/employer, whichever is later.

Should your prior employer provide you with the Notice of Conversion Privilege late, item b. above does not extend your right to apply for conversion beyond 91 days after the Date of Group Coverage Termination. Questions regarding late notification are to be directed to your prior employer.

If you have any questions on how to complete this form, you may call the Conversion Unit at 1-877-320-0484.
